

WEYBURN DISTRICT PLANNING COMMISSION

For Immediate Release

March 21, 2022

New Chairperson at Weyburn District Planning Commission

Weyburn, SK - The Weyburn District Planning Commission (WDPC) is pleased to announce the appointment of a new Chairperson, Nick Coroluick. Nick brings experience as a board leader, in addition Nick brings great perspective and expertise resulting from his years in private business. “Nick will be an asset to the Planning Commission as we move forward. One of our shared values is to foster sustainable growth within our communities. Nick’s leadership will allow us to achieve our mission to provide a joint approach to future land use, fringe development and other matters of inter-municipal or regional concerns,” commented Norm McFadden, Reeve of the RM of Weyburn and WDPC Commission member. Mayor Marcel Roy stated “We welcome Nick as chair of the board. Nick brings with him great knowledge and experience within the municipal government structure. Nick will be a valuable asset to the board”

Nick will chair his first meeting on March 25, 2022.

Since its beginning in 2010, the Weyburn District Planning Commission has been a model of inter-municipal communications, focusing on shared values outlined in the Official District Plan:

- Planned, balanced, and sustainable growth.
- Mutually beneficial partnerships and inter-municipal collaboration.
- The maintenance of a high quality of life for citizens.
- Efficient, effective, and sustainable infrastructure.

The Weyburn District Planning Commission comprises of the Rural Municipality of Weyburn and the City of Weyburn.
